MORE THAN 650 REGISTER FOR IICL EXAMINATIONS

Briarcliff Manor, New York – IICL President Steven R. Blust, is pleased to report that more than 650 candidates have signed up to date for the September 22, 2007, IICL Inspector's Examinations. With the deadline for regular registration approaching on August 10, 2007, IICL continues to receive applications and inquiries from candidates all over the world.

Candidates may register for the examination at the regular registration rates of US$325 for the container test and US$225 for the chassis test until August 10th. A late registration period extends from August 11th to August 31st, with a registration fee of $350 for the container exam and $250 for the chassis.

Candidates interested in registering may do so online via IICL's website <http://www.iicl.org>. Test Information Bulletins, sample questions and a list of test centers are also available at IICL's website.

The Institute of International Container Lessors, Ltd. (IICL) is a trade association, organized in 1971, representing lessors of maritime containers and intermodal chassis. Its member companies are Amficon, CAI, Carlisle, Cronos, Flexi-Van, Florens, GE SeaCO, Gold, Interpool, Textainer, Trac, TAL and Triton. IICL members own or manage approximately 90 percent of the global leased container fleet, representing nearly half of the world container fleet and half of the U.S. chassis fleet operated by ocean carriers, railroads, and other companies. The IICL is active in governmental, regulatory, educational, technological, environmental and security issues. In addition to its widely accepted publications and annual inspector certification examinations, the IICL offers a wide range of educational training courses.
