

INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL CONTAINER LESSORS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
14 October 2010

BEACON JOINS THE IICL

Washington, DC— The Institute of International Container Lessors' (IICL) President, Steven Blust, announced today that Beacon Intermodal Leasing, LLC (Beacon) has joined the IICL.

“We are pleased to welcome Beacon to the IICL and look forward to their involvement in our industry-leading initiatives and programs”, said Joseph Kwok, Chairman of the IICL, and CEO of SeaCube Container Leasing.

“Beacon is excited about joining the distinguished group of current IICL members and we look forward to getting involved and developing a mutually beneficial relationship”, said Jeffrey Gannon, President of Beacon Intermodal Leasing, LLC.

Beacon's involvement in the IICL's innovative programs, including the alternative flooring design program, will provide a broader perspective and support in the IICL members' ability to provide a sustainable supply of quality equipment that meets worldwide customer requirements.

The Institute of International Container Lessors, Ltd. (IICL) is a trade association, organized in 1971, representing lessors of maritime containers and intermodal chassis. Its member companies are Beacon, CAI, Cronos, Flexi-Van, Florens, GE SeaCO, Gold, SeaCube, TAL International, Textainer, TRAC Intermodal, and Triton. IICL members own or manage approximately 90 percent of the global leased container fleet, representing nearly half of the world container fleet and half of the U.S. chassis fleet operated by ocean carriers, railroads, and other companies. The IICL is active in governmental, regulatory, educational, technological, environmental and security issues. Besides its widely accepted publications and annual inspector certification examinations, the IICL offers a wide range of educational training courses.
