IICL'S SECOND REEFER COURSE OF 2006
TO BE HELD IN FLORIDA IN OCTOBER

Briarcliff Manor, New York—IICL will hold its second Refrigerated Container course of 2006 from 24 – 26 October, 2006 in Miami, Florida. The first reefer course this year was held in February in Shanghai, China.

The 3 day course in Miami will offer intensive instruction of IICL reefer container inspection and repair. Other topics planned for the course will be drawn from the following: reefer body and machinery construction and operation. The course will be held at the Hilton Miami Airport Hotel and the Southeastern Trailer and Container Repair depot in Miami, where students will be able to view and participate in practical demonstrations of subjects as they are covered in the classroom.

The deadline for receipt at IICL of registrations and course tuition fees for the Miami, Florida Reefer course is October 13th. The tuition fee is US$1000.00, payable by credit card, teletransfer or with a check (must be drawn on a U.S. branch or affiliate of your bank). The fee a copy of the pocket-size course textbook (Guide for Refrigerated Container Inspection and Repair, 3rd edition) and a Farewell Lunch.
